SUNRISE FIRE-RESCUE WELCOMES MILITARY FAMILY HOME

(SUNRISE, FL, March 2, 2016)- Sunrise Fire-Rescue welcomed home a local military family, inviting them in for a visit with the Engine and Rescue crews at Sunrise Fire Station 72.

U.S. Air Force Master Sgt. Balam “Brian” Ramdatt, his wife Sriyah Ramdatt, and their daughters Arianna, 8, and Aaliyah, 1, are thrilled to be home, after living for over a year on a U.S. military base in Adana, Turkey.

Master Sgt. Balam’s assignment in Turkey was originally to have lasted for two years, but it was cut short by his being accepted into officer training school. While he is now stationed in Alabama for that training until May, Sriyah and the girls have meanwhile returned to their home in Sunrise.

Much to the family’s relief, third-grader Arianna will be able to attend class immediately at Renaissance Charter School at University. “We’re so grateful that Renaissance Charter is able to take Arianna in right away, so that she can still finish the school year on-time with her peers,” said Sriyah.
